COMIDA

Main Features

Machines specifically designed for bakeries, pastry shops, confectionaries and pizza shops, suitable to work both hard and soft dough, without heating it. The twin arms system allows for dough oxygenation, while also limiting heat and allowing for the homogenous distribution of suspended particles.

- Bowl, twin arms and protection grid are fully in stainless steel
- The twin arms simulate the movement of human arms working dough
- The arms are moved by oil-immersed helical gears, which rotate in clockwise direction
- The machines can be mounted on wheels if necessary
- All parts can be easily disassembled for servicing
